

MEMBER'S NIGHT PRESENTORS

Below is a brief bio on the four individuals who will be providing demonstrations during member's night.

Jean Wilson

Jean has been growing orchids since she was living in New York as a teenager. Her grandmother took her to Orchid Jungle during a visit to Miami, and that is how she got hooked on orchids. She is a great grower. Jean has grown and bloomed orchids in New York, Connecticut, Hawaii, and Florida. She is very proud to have received 5 awards of Cultural Merit and 8 awards for flower quality from American Orchid Society. Jean will be sharing her knowledge and expertise presenting Cultural Tips and Cattleya Care as one of the presenters of Members' Night

Javier Morejon

Born in Miami, Javier grew his first orchid at age 15. He joined the OSCG in 1989 and has helped the Society with many projects and programs.

He loves to grow rare species especially when they are mounted as they are in nature. His collection now is of over 300 orchids and keeps growing. At the Members' Day he will be demonstrating how he mounts orchids or put them in baskets.

Betty Eber

Betty has been a member of the Orchid Society of Coral Gables since 1989.

She has served on the Board of Directors and is a past president. Betty has enjoyed growing orchids as a hobby for over 20 years and has been teaching orchid classes at Fairchild Tropical Botanical Garden for many years.

Betty has also lectured at several clubs and taught the "Get Growing" classes at the Miami International Orchid Show.

Jill Sidran

Jill began growing orchids when was 14 years old. She has been an American Orchid Society judge for a long time. She is the Chairperson for the AOS Florida Caribbean Judging Center. She has been a presenter on orchid care many times. Jill has also been the President of The Orchid Society of Coral Gables and the Chairperson for the Fairchild Orchid Show for the last two years. For Members' Night, she will be presenting Phalenopsis Culture and Care.

